Brazil's next president faces tough austerity juggling act

RIO DE JANEIRO: Whoever wins Brazil's presidential election on October 7 will have their work cut out juggling market pressure to implement austerity measures while trying to drag 23 million people out of poverty. According to a World Bank report presented to the 13 candidates, Latin America's biggest economy is facing "three main challenges: a major fiscal imbalance... a lack of sustainable growth in productivity... (and) the state's ever increasing difficulty in providing basic public services." In Brazil, "part of the population still lives in the 19th century and the other part is already in the 21st century," says Marcelo Neri, an...

Election in Kandahar delayed as Afghanistan goes to polls

(//www.dotemirates.com/en/details/1298906290)

Afghanistan postponed legislative elections in Kandahar province on Friday, after a Taliban -claimed attack on a US-Afghan security meeting killed a powerful police chief and threatened stability across the south. Saturday's parliamentary ballot would be delayed by one week, a spokesman for President Ashraf Ghani said in a statement, following an extraordinary meeting of the National Security Council. The Independent Election Commission would announce the new date, he added. Preparations for the vote in Kandahar, the Taliban 's birthplace, were

British street artist Banksy stunned everyone at the Sotheby's auction in London when one of his paintings was partially shredded. The painting, 'Girl With Balloon', was part of Sotheby's contemporary art sale. After it was successfully sold for $1.4 million to the highest bidder, an alarm went off catching audience's attention. In seconds the painting mounted on the wall was shredded, or at least partially shredded, by a mechanism inside the frame. Banksy recently admitted that he had meant for the painting to be shredded completely. That plan however, was

32 civilians killed in coalition strikes in east Syria: monitor

(//www.dotemirates.com/en/details/1298906265)

BEIRUT: Air strikes by the US-led coalition fighting Daesh in eastern Syria have killed at least 32 civilians in less than 24 hours, a monitor said Friday. Strikes on the village of Sousa killed 18 civilians including seven children late Thursday and 14 more civilians on Friday, the Britain-based Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said. Dozens were wounded and many remained under the rubble in the village in the eastern province of Deir Ezzor near the Iraqi border, Observatory chief Rami Abdel Rahman said. Nine Daesh fighters also lost their lives in the raids, he
