
Peruvian rebels suspected in attack that kills 5
AP - Peruvian authorities say attackers believed to be Shining Path rebels killed three police officers and two women in an assault on a remote police post in a coca region. Full Story

Slain Nigerian sect members buried in mass graves
AFP - Nigerian authorities swept dozens of bodies into mass graves in the grisly aftermath of last week's Islamist uprising that killed hundreds of people, officials and residents said. Full Story

Pakistan Christians shut schools to mourn killings
AP - Pakistani Christians have closed their schools and colleges across the country for three days starting Monday to mourn and protest the killings of eight of their religious brethren, leaders of the minority community said. Full Story

Canada court won't stop arms dealer's extradition
Reuters - A German-Canadian arms dealer facing tax evasion and corruption charges in Germany lost a last-ditch appeal on Sunday to stop his extradition when an Ontario court rejected his application for an injunction. Full Story

China urges Australia to respect law over Rio case
AFP - A top Chinese official has called on Canberra to respect China's legal system, saying a mining executive held in Shanghai would have broken Australian law if his alleged crimes had occurred in China. Full Story

Brazil's growing middle class powers rebound
McClatchy Newspapers - RIO DE JANEIRO _ Brazil is beginning to pull out of an economic dive triggered by the global financial crisis, but it's not the... soybean, meat and iron ore exports that are powering the turnaround largest economy. Full Story

New Taliban code: Don't kill civilians, don't take ransom
Fri, 31 Jul 2009 02:00 am PDT
The Christian Science Monitor - US commanders in Afghanistan are worried that civilian deaths are costing them hearts and minds. The Taliban planted bombs in schools and occasionally burned its opponents alive, code of conduct for militants that appears to be an attempt to project an Afghan people. Full Story

The Death of Corazon Aquino, Saint of People Power, 1933-2009
Sun, 2 Aug 2009 10:30 pm PDT
Time.com - At a critical time in her country's history, the shy widow took up the charismatic husband's legacy and led it through a valley of the shadow

Focus Shifts to Trafficking of Men in Europe
Fri, 31 Jul 2009 09:05 am PDT
OneWorld.net - BRATISLAVA, Jul 31 (IPS) - Governments and third organisations must raise awareness of a growing problem with male and some of Eastern Europe's poorest countries if its victims are to get the help they need, people trafficking monitors say. Full Story

You received this email because you subscribed to Yahoo! Alerts. Use this link to unsubscribe your communications preferences for other Yahoo! business lines, please visit your Mark about Yahoo!'s use of personal information, including the use of web beacons in HTML Privacy Policy. Yahoo! is located at 701 First Avenue, Sunnyvale, CA

POSTED BY SUPERMAN AT 12:01 AM

0 COMMENTS:

POST A COMMENT